

As of this time, there have been no "tests" conducted anywhere that does not show an unexceptable amount of interference to HF communications with BPL..What would ever give the commission members a clue that this is a good idea except for the people profiting from the inclusion of this "technology"????? Please consider all of the radio services that would suffer from this type of transmission.